Gabriel is an Associate in the San José office. His practice is dedicated to Dispute Resolution, although he participates in other practice areas as needed.

In Dispute Resolution, he has advised on and participated in the resolution of civil, commercial, and criminal law conflicts. He also advocates alternative resolutions such as conciliations and arbitrations.

Gabriel has also worked in the areas of Sanitary Registration of Products and Intellectual Property for several years. His work includes advising national and transnational companies in all aspects related to the registration of health-related products and consulting on the regulation of these products. He has also participated in the protection and defense of the intellectual property rights of transnationals and the registration of distinctive signs and trademarks.

He also manages portfolios of sanitary records for multinational companies in the food and beverage, cosmetics, chemical, and health care sectors.

He joined the BLP team as a paralegal in 2017, being promoted as an associate in 2019.

Gabriel is currently the coordinator of the firm's LGBTI Commission.
