Lilian is a Partner of BLP Honduras. Her practice areas include Banking & Finance, Business Law, International Trade, Tax, and FreeTrade Zones.

Throughout her 24 years of experience in the area of international trade, she has advised on different customs regimes, customs regulations in Central America, customs adjustments to value, and oppositions in general. As for Tax, she has extensive knowledge in tax litigation, challenges to adjustments, tax planning, special regimes, and exemptions and credits. Currently, she provides advice to different private entities, commercial companies, private financial development organizations, and non-governmental development organizations.

She has been head of the Legal Counseling and Advocacy Department at the Executive Directorate of Revenues (DEI) for four years and advises on the Legal Manual of Auditors of the Project sponsored by DEI funds, now known as the Revenue Administration Service (SAR).

In 2015 she became one of the six Founding Partners of BLP Honduras. Previously, she was a partner at Lexincorp and Haroldo A. López Law Center.
