Luis is a Special Counsel in the San José office. He specializes in the Tax practice area.

In his more than 30 years of experience in the legal profession, he has extensive knowledge in consulting, compliance, and tax litigation, specializing in advice to companies seeking to remain up-to-date with the Tax Administration and eliminate tax contingencies. He also has extensive experience providing advice on tax inspection processes before the Tax Administration and directing tax, administrative, and judicial litigation procedures on behalf of national and transnational companies.

He is recognized as a prominent tax law attorney by the renowned legal publication Chambers & Partners, while Who's Who Legal qualifies him as a lawyer with great technical knowledge. In addition, he is highly regarded by Costa Rican tax authorities for his well-prepared approach to any judicial proceedings regarding tax issues. The media regularly seek commentary from Luis on national tax matters.

In 2010, he retired as Tax Manager of KPMG to join the BLP team and become a member of the Tax practice area in 2013.
