

Ana Eugenia Guillén

ASSOCIATE

ABOUT

Ana Eugenia Guillén is an Associate at BLP in San José, Costa Rica. Her practice focuses on Dispute Resolution and International Trade, areas in which she has built a solid track record providing strategic legal advice, risk prevention, and representation to domestic and international companies.

She has participated in domestic and international arbitration proceedings, as well as in civil, commercial, insolvency, administrative, and criminal litigation related to economic crimes and negligent offenses. Her experience also includes handling complex disputes in sectors such as energy & infrastructure, construction, banking & finance, and corporate conflicts, working in close coordination with multidisciplinary teams.

Ana Eugenia complements her practice with a specialized focus on international commercial disputes, including advisory work during pre-contractual, contractual, and extra-contractual stages. She has been recognized by The Legal 500 as a Recommended Lawyer in Dispute Resolution.
