BLP advised Scotiabank, which acted as the lead arranger and broker of the transaction, leading a syndicate of banks that restructured the loan agreements. The borrower re-arranged several loans through the deal, placing loans borrowed by Phoenix Tower's U.S., Spanish, and Chilean subsidiaries into the same debt structure. The portfolio now includes a $1.4 billion credit line, a $540 million delayed draw term loan, and a $56 million revolving credit facility. The transaction won the 17th annual Deal of the Year Award in the banking and finance category by Latin Lawyer.

Syndicated loan of $700 million.

BLP has advised a roster of 15 first line creditors, such as Bancolombia Group, Davivienda Group, BAC Group, Aval Group, Banco Industrial Group and Banco General on a syndicated loan for up to $700 million, to the Calleja Group, the leading grocery retailer in El Salvador.

Grupo Unicomer on a syndicated loan for US$350 million.

BLP advice on a $350 million loan transaction granted to Grupo Unicomer by a pool of syndicated banks, where several subsidiaries of Unicomer in LATAM and the Caribbean have acted as guarantors. Our legal guidance spanned the entire process, from negotiations to signing the credit agreement, and included the preparation and execution of creative local documentation, such as local acknowledgments, security trusts, and promissory notes.
