ABOUT

Javier Figueroa is a Senior Associate in BLP's Guatemala office. His practice focuses on banking and finance, capital markets and financial regulation. He advises financial institutions, borrowers, investors and other market participants on domestic and cross-border transactions, particularly bilateral and syndicated financings, secured loans, refinancings and project finance. He has also participated in corporate and sovereign debt issuances and advises on fintech and regulated activities. His experience also includes corporate matters and participation in mergers and acquisitions transactions.

Javier also serves as a coach for university teams in international investment arbitration, guiding students in legal research, memorial writing and oral advocacy. In addition, he leads university engagement initiatives. He joined BLP in 2024.
